

University of Michigan Women's Ice Hockey Head Coach

Job Summary

The University of Michigan Women's Ice Hockey Club is seeking a highly motivated head coach who can provide on-ice guidance that will allow the club to find success at the national level. The UM team is in the CCWHA League and is a D1 ACHA team. UM Women's Ice Hockey is a student-run organization that elects a board of players to perform all organizational tasks (i.e. game/referee scheduling, making travel arrangements, etc.), so the candidate need not perform "manager duties" in the traditional youth club sense. He/she must possess outstanding communication skills, strong leadership, and have experience coaching at a high level.

Start Date

- The Head Coach is expected to work with the board over the summer to coordinate and organize the upcoming season.
- Season is September through March.

Required Qualifications

- Proven coaching success in a competitive ice hockey program.
- Ability to commit to all competitions during the months of September through March.
- Ability to run practices (approximately 4 hours per week). Practices are held Mon-Thurs – typically evening skates at Yost
- USAH Coaching certification (Level 4) and the ability to comply with other USAH/ACHA and UM requirements (safesport training) before the beginning of the season.

Responsibilities

- Run tryouts in September with team captains and coordinate with Team Leadership to select the team for the upcoming season.
- Lead practices and supervise all aspects of training and competition.
- Travel with team to away competitions and tournaments.
- Work closely with the Team Leadership to have a successful season by collectively assessing team strengths and weaknesses.
- Collaborate and plan over the summer for the upcoming season.
- Accept the responsibility of being a positive representative of the University of Michigan.

Salary

- $3,000 for the 2018/19 season.
- Transportation and lodging for away events provided.

How to Apply

- Please submit a cover letter and resume (professional references if applicable) to claremcm@umich.edu
- The cover letter should address your specific interest in the position, provide an overview of your coaching philosophy, and outline skills and experience that directly relate to this position.
- The deadline to apply is April 26th, 2018. We will be reviewing applications as they're received.
- Interview may be required

Additional Information

- This position is not an employee of the University of Michigan and will not receive benefits or eligibility for worker's compensation.
- This position does not have any administrative or budgetary responsibilities - due to the nature of Club Sports, those aspects are coordinated by student leaders and executive board members. Coach serves in an advisory role only.

Background Screening

The University of Michigan conducts background checks on all volunteers (independent contractors) upon acceptance of a contingent offer and may use a third party administrator to conduct background checks. Background checks will be performed in compliance with the Fair Credit Reporting Act.
