

BOSTON JUNIOR TERRIERS Assistant HEAD EHL JUNIOR COACH

The Boston Junior Terriers will be expanding into the ranks of Junior Hockey and are looking for an assistant coach. The ideal candidate will have the following qualifications and experience:

- Experience as a player or coach at the junior, college and/or professional level preferred.
- Ability to recruit qualified players with strong character traits both in person and on the phone
- Ability to work within a budget
- Ability to plan productive practices and conduct video sessions
- Ability to manage and coordinate plans with head coaches, strength coaches and goaltending consultants
- Three years of coaching experience preferred but not mandatory
- Ability to communicate with players, parents and members of the community
- Strong network of contacts at the collegiate level to assist in player advancement
- Proficient in Microsoft Excel/Word, Power Point, & Google Docs
- Ability to work in the U.S.

Job responsibilities include, but are not limited to:

- Assist in Player evaluation and selection
- Assist in Planning organizing and conducting practices
- Assist in Conducting meetings with players on a regular basis and giving them feedback as needed
- Assisting with game day operations as needed
- Participating in promotional events throughout the community as required

Possible housing and meals included for the right candidate.

Pay will be determined based on experience, and will consist of salary, bonuses, housing and if needed may be possible Opportunities for additional compensation will be made available in the form of private lessons and holiday camps.

Applicants must possess a valid driver's license and be able to pass a background check.

Please submit a cover letter, resume, and references to:
russ@terriershockey.com

THE EASTERN HOCKEY LEAGUE (EHL) -- JUNIOR "A"

Located in the Northeast and Mid-Atlantic regions of the United States, the Eastern Hockey League (EHL) and its 19 teams celebrates its 10th season in 2022-23. For the past six years, the EHL has finished as the leader in the Direct-To-College Advancement at the Division II and III levels. This past season alone, the EHL accounted for nearly 1 in every 5 freshmen on Division II and III rosters.

To go along with the NCAA Commitments, the EHL has also helped over 100 players work their way up to higher levels of junior play. This area of advancement is also not limited to just players, as the EHL has seen a number of coaches make the jump up the ladder as well.