

The University of Kentucky is interviewing for a Head Coach for the newly formed ACHA Men's Division III team, to begin play 2024-25. The team will compete as ACHA D3. The University of Kentucky is located in Lexington, KY, the heart of the bluegrass state. The hockey program is celebrating their 40th year as a club this season.

Responsibilities include:

- Recruitment of players and assistant coaches
- Design practice plans
- Strong work ethic and time management
- Good communication skills and ability to work with players, staff, and rink personnel.
- Work with GM, Asst GM and President of the LLC to make schedule and travel lists.
- Handle administrative duties as needed
- Monitoring players' academic performance to ensure they meet the requirements and understand class work takes precedence
- Must pass background check, complete Safesport training, and have a level 1 or 2 license with expectation to go to a level 4
- Follow all ACHA rules and regulations
- Flexible schedule to accommodate ice time availability and travel dates
- Adhere to University policies and procedures and club bylaws

We are looking for someone looking to build a program in the mold of our current DII team. Previous coaching experience is required. This is a volunteer position, as are all other positions within the program. The program is 100% self funded.
