

TPH NASHVILLE JOB OPPORTUNITY

TPH is looking for a Coordinator of Girls Hockey and Nashville Jr. Predators Girls Coach and Girls Hockey Director to join our team in Nashville!

Coordinator of Girls Hockey will work to grow girls hockey in the Nashville area through building relationships, recruitment and programming and player development. This individual will work to grow the core number of girls playing hockey, increase programming on a local and national level. This person will also coach athletes directly in areas related to their sport and mentor them on “the process” of reaching their potential in sport, school, and, most importantly, life. This individual will multi-task and often work hand-in-hand with the hockey director, operations, admin, and enhancing the overall student-athlete experience. This Coordinator of Girls Hockey, Director and Coach will often specialize in components of athletic instruction and deliver the actual training to the student-athletes. This position also comes with a strong focus on providing input in developing a strategic plan to drive student-athlete interest in the Academy model and building a database of prospective student-athletes.

As the Nashville Jr. Predators Girls Director and Coach, this individual will be able to recruit the best players from all over the country and work to build the program from Tier II to Tier 1 and take the program to the next level. This individual should also have the expertise, connections, and willingness to move players to college opportunities.
