

93 Hockey Services is looking to bring on another Women's Hockey Advisor to work with amateur athletes and their families throughout the college recruiting process. Our team has secured over $1 million in NCAA scholarships for players to join some of the top programs in college hockey, and we've also helped athletes compete for some of the best Prep/Academy programs in North America.

Duties:

- Identifying and recruiting potential student-athletes
- Advising players and families on the NCAA recruiting process
- Assisting players in becoming familiar with the NCAA Eligibility Center
- Guiding players and families through the Prep, Academy, and AAA landscape
- Tracking all current recruiting conversations and offers
- Helping players and families navigate admissions applications and requirements

Qualifications:

- Background in playing and/or coaching
- Understanding of NCAA hockey and the college recruiting process
- Ability to identify and recruit prospective student-athletes
- Strong networking and communication skills
- Passion for the game and seeing players succeed

This is a commission-based position with a potential travel stipend. The role also offers opportunities for growth within 93HS and career advancement, as former advisors have transitioned into coaching positions.

Join one of the most successful and pioneering organizations representing women's hockey players! We currently represent numerous Olympians, World Champions, PWHL players, NCAA athletes, and top emerging talent from around the world!
