

University of Michigan Women's Ice Hockey

Associate Head Coach

Job Summary

The University of Michigan Women's Ice Hockey Club is seeking a highly motivated associate head coach who can provide on-ice guidance that will allow the club to find success at the national level. The UM team is in the CCWHA Leagues and is an ACHA D1 team. UM's Women's Ice Hockey is a student-run organization that elects a board of players to perform all organizational tasks (i.e. budgeting, travel arrangements, etc.), so the candidate need not perform "manager duties" in the traditional youth club sense. He/she must possess outstanding communication skills, strong leadership, and have experience coaching at a high level.

Time Requirements

- The Coach is expected to work with the board and fellow coaching staff starting in June to coordinate and organize the upcoming season.
- The season runs September through March, with no competitions over UM Fall, Winter, or Spring breaks.
- Approximately 3 overnight trips and 10 day trips

Required Qualifications

- Proven coaching success in a competitive ice hockey program.
- Ability to commit to all competitions during the months of September through March.
- Ability to run practices (approximately 4 hours per week. Practices are held Mon-Thurs - typically night skate at Yost.
- USAH Coaching certification (Level 4) and the ability to comply with other USAH/ACHA and UM requirements (safesport training) before the beginning of the season.

Responsibilities

- Be the main support for the head coach
- Assist with tryouts in September and coordinate with Team Leadership to select that team for the upcoming season.
- Lead practices and supervising all aspects of training and competition.
- Support with the selection of game lineup.
- Travel with the team to away competitions and tournaments.
- Work closely with the Team Leadership to have a successful season by collectively assessing team strengths and weaknesses.
- Collaborate and plan over the summer for the upcoming season.
- Act as the head coach should the head coach be unavailable for a team event
- Accept the responsibility of being a positive representative of the University of Michigan.

Compensation ($3,500-$4,500)

- This is a volunteer/part-time position, though potential for stipends or other compensation may be available through fundraising and sponsorships.
- Transportation, lodging, and food provided for away events.

How to Apply

- Please submit a cover letter and resume (professional references if applicable) to um.woho.eboard@umich.edu
- The cover letter should address your specific interest in the position, provide an overview of your coaching philosophy, and outline skills and experience that directly relate to this position.
- The deadline to apply is April 30, 2025. We will be reviewing applications as they are received. An interview will be required.

Additional Information

- This position is not an employee of the University of Michigan and will not receive benefits or eligibility for worker's compensation.
- This position does not have any administrative or budgetary responsibilities - due to the nature of Club Sports, those aspects are coordinated by student leaders and executive board members. Coach services in an advisory role only.

Background Screening

The University of Michigan conducts background checks on all volunteers (independent contractors) upon acceptance of a contingent offer and may use a third party administrator to conduct background checks. Background checks will be performed in compliance with the Fair Credit Reporting Act.

U-M EEO/AA Statement: The University of Michigan is an equal opportunity/affirmative action employer.
