

Head Coaching Opportunity – Binghamton Buzz (NA3HL)

The Binghamton Buzz, the 2025 NA3HL Eastern Division Champions, are seeking a passionate and driven Head Coach for the upcoming 2025–2026 season.

As a first-year program, we proudly captured the division title and are looking for a leader who can build on that momentum. The ideal candidate will bring energy, experience, and a commitment to developing players both on and off the ice.

Responsibilities include:

- Leading daily practices, games, and off-ice training sessions
- Developing players for advancement to higher junior and collegiate levels
- Overseeing team operations, including staff coordination and recruiting
- Working closely with our U18 and U16 Academy teams, as well as supporting operations with our NAHL team, the Elmira Aviators
- Representing the organization professionally within the community and league

Qualifications:

- Prior coaching experience at the junior, collegiate, or AAA level preferred
- Strong leadership and communication skills
- Ability to recruit and develop high-level talent
- USA Hockey coaching certification (or ability to obtain prior to season)

This is a unique opportunity to take the reins of a championship program and continue building a strong, winning culture across multiple levels of our organization.

Interested candidates should email a resume and cover letter to

Raymond Welsh
rwelsh@elmiraaviatorsnahl.com