

HEAD AND ASSISTANT Coaches wanted- Boston Jr Terriers, JR Dogs NCDC, American Hockey Academy

With the growth of all of our brands we are looking for experienced, passionate and dedicated head and assistant coaches to join our staff. Full time coaching positions some part time may be available. Must be development focused, have experience with breaking down film in team and 1v1 scenarios, be able to recruit and maintain players as well as build lasting relationships with players and families. Must be connected and be able to help move players on to the next levels when player is ready.

Not able to get visas and no relocation expense covered. Salary determined by experience and position. Starting immediately, with recruiting season upon us. In season must be able work mid-day hours, weekend and night hours and be able to do occasional overnight trips.

Reply with resume, references and coaching philosophy to:
russ@terriershockey.com