

Volunteer Assistant Coach Clarkson University Men's Club Hockey (ACHA Men's Division 2)

Clarkson University- Potsdam, New York

Clarkson University Men's Club Hockey, American Collegiate Hockey Association (ACHA) Men's Division 2 (M2)/Super East Collegiate Hockey League (SECHL), is seeking a Volunteer Assistant Coach for the 2026-2027 season.

Under new leadership, our program is focused on building a competitive, organized, and student-centered culture while emphasizing player development, accountability, professionalism, and long-term program growth.

This is an excellent opportunity for an individual looking to gain collegiate coaching experience, remain involved in the game after playing, or contribute to the continued growth of a collegiate hockey program.

Responsibilities

- Assist with on-ice practices and skill development
- Provide bench support during home and away games
- Assist with player development and team systems
- Support recruiting and player evaluations
- Assist with team operations and travel as needed
- Help foster a positive, accountable team culture

Preferred Qualifications

- Previous playing and/or coaching experience
- Strong communication and leadership skills
- Dependable, organized, and team-oriented
- Passion for mentoring student-athletes
- Ability to work collaboratively within a coaching staff

Season Commitment

- Multiple weekly practices
- Weekend games and occasional travel
- Preseason planning, tryouts, and recruiting activities

Compensation

This is a volunteer position and is not financially compensated. The position provides valuable hands-on experience within a collegiate hockey program and opportunities to contribute to player development, recruiting, practice planning, and overall program operations.

Application Process

Interested candidates should submit:

- Cover letter
- Resume

Applications will be reviewed on a rolling basis until the position is filled.

Please send application materials to:

Joe Drew
Head Coach

Clarkson University Men's Club Hockey

 jdrew@clarkson.edu